

Celebrity Wrap-Artists to appear in Regent Arcade

The Royal Society for the Blind (RSB) has assembled a cast of high profile identities to appear in their Regent Arcade Pop-Up Gift Wrapping Shop, in the lead up to Christmas.

Open every trading day until December 24, the shop provides blind and vision impaired job candidates with valuable customer service experience, while allowing them to demonstrate their skills to potential employers.

RSB Employment Services Coordinator, Cathrin Gill, says, “I’m rapt that a range of high-profile South Australians have volunteered their time and talents to support the venture. They will all design a special limited edition wrap, that will only be available during their in-store appearance; and be available to sign it to create a truly special and unique gift wrap.”

Celebrity Wrap-Artists so far confirmed are: Australian Diamonds and Adelaide Thunderbirds netballer Erin Bell, acclaimed singer/songwriter Rachael Leahcar, the Lady Mayoress of Adelaide, Genevieve Theseira-Haese, the member for Reynell, Katrine Hildyard MP, internationally acclaimed fashion designer Paolo Sebastian and style guru and Advertiser columnist, Markus Hamence.

More names are expected to be confirmed soon.
